

Parma Academy is an award-winning, public charter school offering a premier early learning program in partnership with Creative Playrooms, a neighboring preschool. The two schools work as standalone or combined programs to offer families a continuous infant care through early elementary foundation.

“Though we are little, we are fierce and mighty.” Parma Academy Pandas benefit from a college preparatory curriculum, small class sizes, and individualized student support. Parma Academy creates a culture of high expectations through the use of rigorous, research-based curricula, and a focus on achievement and student growth. The school inspires students to develop a spirit of generosity, a sense of giving back, and a desire to make a difference in their communities.

MISSION STATEMENT

To prepare students for a college preparatory high school that will ensure success and graduation from a four year college.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS

The academic goal of Parma Academy was for all students to show one or more years of growth in Reading and Math. This goal was achieved as evidenced by the school's Progress component data where fourth grade met the state's student growth expectation in English Language Arts (ELA) and Math and additionally by i-Ready assessment data where most students met or exceeded growth targets within the year. The school additionally increased its Performance Index (PI) score by an outstanding 33% and earned a four-star rating for exceeding state standards in closing educational gaps.

St. Aloysius, as the sponsor of this school, is legally mandated to provide oversight, monitoring, and technical assistance. As part of the monitoring process, the performance of the school is assessed and evaluated on each of the required Ohio School Report Card components. Additionally, St. Aloysius has a regular presence at school board meetings where student performance indicators such as attendance, behavior, and academic achievement are tracked and financial and organizational issues that impact student success are reviewed and discussed. Key to the oversight, monitoring, and technical assistance is St. Aloysius' review of the school's Ohio Improvement Process (OIP) plan development and implementation. As a result of our thorough oversight and monitoring, St. Aloysius has determined that this school is substantially compliant with the rules and regulations governing community schools

All community school sponsors are required to submit a written report of the evaluation results of the school's academic, financial, and organizational performance, as well as the school's legal compliance with Ohio Revised Code, Ohio Administrative Code, and to the terms of the Community School contract. This report must be made available to parents of students enrolled in the community school by November 30th of each year under OAC 3301-102-05 (A) (3). An Annual Report regarding the performance of this school and other schools under the sponsorship of St. Aloysius will be posted on our website at www.stalschildren.org/charterschools and www.charterschoolspec.com no later than November 30, 2022. Parents are urged to review this report, in addition to other monitoring and evaluation reports available through the school or the sponsor for a full understanding of the school's performance.
